DAILY RECORD-UNION

FRIDAY.....OCTOBER 12, 1888

We are here simply to say that, in our opinion as American citizens, what Ireland needs is not coercion, is not the Constable, is not the soldier with musket and bayonet; but liberal laws, tending to emancipate her people from the results of long centuries of ill government.—General Harrison at the Indianapolis meeting for Irish Home Rule, April, 1887.

We know that Irishmen have many a time in the struggle of their native land, and in our fight in America for constitutional government, thrown themselves upon the bayonet of the enemies of liberty with reckless courage. It is gratifying to know that they can also make a quiet but unyielding resistance to oppression by parliamentary methods.—General Harrison at the O'Conor banyan.

THE CIVIL SERVICE REPORT.

By Senator Hale the special committee of the United States Senate to examine into the present condition of the civil service has reported, and the report is anything but comforting to Mr. Cleveland and his supporters. The committee "makes no bones" of the matter: it does not trifle with words, and calls things by unmistakable and ungloved names. Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Cleveland went into office voluntarily pledged to reform the civil service, and that he took pains to so express himself in letters, and that who was bound as solemnly as any man can be to enforce the existing civil service laws, the committee charges that parishes changes have been made by the wholesale in Federal offices without the good of the service demanding them. That in Philadelphia, Baltimore, Indianapolis and New York and other places those changes have been followed by scandals in the public service and inefficiency, that Federal officers, despite the letter of the President of July 14, 1886, have openly taken part in political & inventions and primary elections, using their official positions to accomplish them. Thus it is cited that the Federal machine has been used to break down Mr. Randall in his district; that State Conventions have been dominated by Federal officials, and the Chairmanship of the State Committee in Pennsylvania secured by those who would forward the allegiance to Mr. Randall. For one of these and similar acts has any Federal official been disciplined, and though the offense has been repeated time and again, they not have been even rebuked.

The report also charges that toils and assessions have been levied without concealment, in open violation of the civil service regulations and principles, and the gross abuse has not been checked or rebuked. The committee cites the report of the Civil Service Reform Association of Indiana, the case of Aquilla Jones, Postmaster of Indianapolis, and other facts, in support of its position. The report really gives us no new information, but it puts what everyone knew—the shameless breaking of his pledges by the President and the open violation of the law—into official indictment and brings the whole subject to Congressional notice.

The reform of the civil service was entered upon some twelve or fifteen years ago to correct gross abuses, to eliminate from the civil service the mere greed for office and to secure to the Government efficient service. It was inaugurated in order to bring into the clerical system, especially, the same business principles that govern in a well and economically-administered private business house. It was urged to extirpate the spoils system and to free governmental employees from the tyranny and extortion of bosses. It was given to the country in order that Government employees below the grade of elective offices and heads of departments should owe allegiance to the people only, and not to political task-masters and autocrats, and that their wage-earners might no longer be taxed for political purposes against their will. It was not put in motion in the interest of any political party, nor was it the creature of men of one political organization, but engaged the unselfish labors and best energies of men of all parties, and the author of the bill that projected the reform into law was a Democrat.

To the preservation and advancement of this reform Grover Cleveland pledged himself voluntarily and with solemnity, in his letters of acceptance of the nomination in 1884; in his letter to George William Curtis; in his inaugural address; in his first annual message; in his letter to the Civil Service Commission condemning the spoliation system, and in repeated oral and written expressions.

After a feeble-förliche showing of intention to keep these pledges, the President relaxed his new-born energy, departed from his word, and under the pressure of the spokesman has deserted the civil service reform to which he was bound, and has thus deserved the scathing indictment upon which the Senate committee arraigned him.

A CRIMINAL MOB

Which Infests Our City and Requires Prompt and Energetic Attention.

When it became whispered about the infernal regions and porticos of California that the devil and the gamblers, represented to a numerous signed petition, and by acquiescence of the authorities, were to hold undisputed sway in Sacramento during the last State Fair, an immigration of the lowest and toughest element known to exist at once set in towards the Capital City. They came from the worst slums of San Francisco, and wherever there was a hide-out-place for vicious criminals, thieves, swindlers and cut-throats of every class, and they continued to come and to infest the streets until they amounted to a plague of the direst sort. The mob which was brought into the city by the press, and their degrading operations and crimes, is well-known to require recall. Had the press and the "red" signs of terror and despair been enough to stop the closing of the fair, the stain which the occasion left upon Sacramento could have been regarded with some degree of compassion; but the fact that the experience was so humiliating and bitter, that it would never be permitted again.

But only a portion of the thieves and vagabonds left with the closing of the fair, and a large and vicious crew of the lowest sort of dross of life, and gambling hell still crowd the streets and saloons of the lower portion of the city, street, between Third and Fourth, with its low-down houses, five stories high, as some other localities are high enough in the day time, but at night are often made a pandemonium of drunken debauch, obscenity and violence. Five Points of New York, and suggests the painful inquiry whether the city is really to be given over to this imported mob of gamblers, thugs and thieves.

This intolerable condition of affairs has been permitted until it is time to call a halt and inquire why these worthless vagabonds are allowed to harbor their worthless careers here and to disgrace the city. It is not true that every member of this vicious element that cannot show a proper occupation and lawful means of support be arrested as vagrants and made to earn their living by picking stones or clearing up the dirt in the streets? Why do police and authorities take the matter in hand and remove this burning disgrace and sin from our otherwise fair city?

AT THEIR OLD TRICKS.

The Democratic Reforms Enrolling Sacramento To-night at the Bay.

Chris Buckley is nothing, if not a first-class colonizer. He is gathering in lambs from all over the State, in order to carry San Francisco. The Chronicle of yesterday says:

On last Tuesday a dispatch was received from Sacramento at the Republican State Central Committee, pointing out the information that six young ruffians had been sent by that morning's train to San Francisco with instructions to report at the Treasury Department on Broad Street. This dispatch was placed in the hands of a detective, who at once started off as far as Oakland to intercept the colonizers and shadow them to their holes.

The detective, having located the men, reported to his chief. He was told to go to the Sacramento delegation of Buckley ballot-box stuffers landed at the foot of Market street, walked along that thoroughfare to California street, where he found a good many of the gang, bearing vineyard and orchard, 1112 J. Particula, S. Inquiry of CARL STROEHL, 221 J. 612-12.

DATE TAKEN.

LADIES OF THE CONGREGATIONAL Church and Society will hold their Bazaar the 26th of December.

TO A GRAND SACRED CONCERT

TO BE GIVEN FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE BUILDING FUND of the Y. M. C. A., to be held on Saturday evening, October 13, 1888.

CHILDREN'S DANCING CLASS.

WE INVITE THE PARENTS THAT DEMAND TO SEND their children to the class session to meet at the Hotel California Saturday afternoon.

Another of the gang answered this in the language of toughs, by saying: "We come to snuff 'em out, and keep on the weather side of the crib." Meaning on the outside of the State prison.

"Well, boys, this is the worst bunch we'll have for a month, you bet."

Another of the colonizers was saying:

"What about the thirty-day racket?"

"Oh, get up, you're not getting along," chimed in another. "What in hell have you got to do with residence? You do as you're told. What were we sent down here for, anyway?"

"I'm on Bush street, near Montgomery," answered the leader, refreshing his memory from a card which he took from his vest pocket.

His cronies dispersed of their lunch and two glasses of beer each they lighted their cigarettes and left the place, followed by the detective. The officers had been directed for the service that had been created for the gang members, remained outside on the sidewalk for about twenty minutes, when a man who came up Bush street from Montgomery street, the leader of the party of the gang, and said, "Good evening, I am here to see you." The detective, who had been following him, the two entered the hallway leading to the Tammany rooms, where they remained for thirty minutes, at the end of which time the leader appeared on the sidewalk, and his five cronies gathered round him, and after a short conference the six went direct to a lodging-house in the Nineteenth Senatorial district, where they obtained rooms and where the detective located them.

These roughs, with others, are spotted, and it is well known that they have been brought here from Republican counties, and that their names are not known. It is proposed to vote them in every downtown precinct, where cheap lodging-houses offer just such inducements. This same line of tactics was resorted to four years ago, when the Tammany gang, the Committee had its corps of detectives on the alert, their labor being rewarded by the arrest and conviction of seven men, who were sentenced to imprisonment in the State Prison for fraudulent registration and voting.

The same fate is in store for all those who attempt to do likewise this year. The colonizers will be apt to be located by the detective, and will on their first attempt to register or vote be instantaneously arrested and prosecuted in the Federal Courts, where the boss influence is not known nor recognized.

BETTER THAN A HERO.

"What a coward that Major Smith is," said Jones to Robinson, "why, the very sight of gun-powder would make him ill. Now he is never man to be an officer in the army." "Don't say anything against Smith," answered Robinson, "he once saved my life!"

"I mean to tell you that in the first stage of consumption: I was losing strength and vitality every day with the terrible disease, when Smith advised me to take a walk in the cooler parts of the city, and tried all sorts of medicine without success, and my physician had given me hope; yet here I am, as well as ever a man was, and I owe my life to Smith, and to the wonderful remedy he recommended."

publican headquarters last evening. C. H.

Cunningham presided, and H. H. Truett,

Secretary. It was decided to extend invitations to Governor Waterman and other

State officers, Senator Stanford, Congressmen McKenna, Morrow, Vendever and Faxon. On New Years' Day, the Central Committee and the County Central Committee will extend an invitation to all who believe in protection to American labor and industries to take part in the demonstration. It is further decided to request the uniform clubs of Sacramento and the visiting clubs upon arrival and escort them to the place of rendezvous. The Secretary will send out the above invitations. The committee will request all representatives to accept, so that arrangements may be completed for the demonstration as soon as possible.

New Incorporations.

Articles of incorporation have been filed with the Secretary of State, of the H. and O. Consolidated Mining Company. The purpose stated is "to carry on the business of mining for gold and silver, and buying and selling mines in Nevada county, California."

The principal piece of business is to be at Gold Valley, and the period of its existence, five years. The new Directors appointed to serve the first year are A. D. West, G. W. Warner, A. M. Austin, George McWayne and George Pierce, all of Grass Valley. The amount of capital stock is $250,000, divided into 50,000 shares of $5 each, all of which has already been subscribed.

Also, of the Vulcan Iron Works, to acquire the assets and stock in trade of the San Jose & Co. Works, and to carry on the foundry business. Directors Edward E. Eyre, Richard D. Girven, James H. Graham, John A. Wright and George M. Pinckney. Capital stock $100,000, divided into 1,000 shares of $100 each. Also, of the Max Lenzberg's Street Chair and Transfer Company, to establish a street directory in San Francisco and Oakland. Directors—Edward Sikes, R. D. Lovell, J. W. Moyle, Martin James and Raymond Holmes. Capital stock, $50,000, in 5,000 shares.

A Fraud—Look Out for Him.

For the past two or three days a man has been working the sympathy racket in this city, and has imposed upon several well-meaning and kind-hearted citizens. His plan is this: He will ascertain the citizen's name and then make himself acquainted. He claims the same name, says he is no beggar, is impudent, and desires a handout of a dollar. He is well dressed, has a plausible story, and, as far as he can tell, has been successful in every instance. He is from Dublin, and so far all his victims have been Irish-American citizens. So far he has been successful in claiming the name of Jones, Smith, O'Brien, Conroy, McGuire and O'Donnell. He is a smooth talker, and evidently had a close acquaintance with the blackamoor before he left the "Land of the Free" to "Land of the free and the home of the brave." He is about 45 years of age, has a heavy brown moustache and wears a brown coat and vest and dark-colored pantaloons. Look out for him.

Further Nominations.

The Democratic County Central Committee met last evening and transacted considerable business. They are looking after the new registration, and will leave no stone unturned to see that the Republicans do not get any advantage this fall. So far all the friends remain to the Democracy, but they deny every accusation.

Kleibitz having resigned the nomination for County Treasurer, Geo. F. Bronner was nominated in his stead. Mr. Bronner has served the county service in the office of the Public Administrator.

Four City Justices they nominated Judge W. H. and Judge A. P. Counts.

For Constables they put up E. J. Boden and W. E. Glick.

Police Court Trials.

In the Police Court yesterday, Frank Nichols, charged with burglary, on motion of the City Attorney was discharged.

The case of Mrs. Elliott, charged with selling liquor to an Indian girl, was tried before Justice Deane. The proof was to prove that the girl was an Indian, and the case was dismissed. Thus again is a notorious woman allowed to go on a technicality.

The charge of buying stolen property against Annie Manning was dismissed. She earnestly requested that the charge of battery preferred by her against officer Arlington, be also dismissed. The City Attorney did not object. The Court took the master under advisement.

Accident to the Local.

The Sacramento local train met with a severe accident at Pinole at 6 o'clock last evening. The freight train going west left the switch open. The local train was on the side track, where several box-cars of lumber were standing, and were immediately dashed. Engineer Clark and the fireman jumped, the former striking on his shoulder, dislocating it. The passengers had a lively shaking, but none were seriously hurt. The only fatality occurred in the pulling out of the draw-bars of the baggage car, the bursting of the water tank on the engine and some damage to the freight car. The train was delayed two hours by the accident.

Another Lake Enterprise.

The Carson Tribune says: A. L. Frost, a Sacramento local train met with a severe accident at Pinole at 6 o'clock last evening. The freight train going west left the switch open. The local train was on the side track, where several box-cars of lumber were standing, and were immediately dashed. Local Auctions.

Bell & Co., at 10 A. M. today, will sell at railroad stock yards, Fortunate and B streets, two thousand lots of first-class driving and draft horses, weight from 1,000 to 1,500 pounds each; also 1000 sheep and 900 lambs. The horses feed themselves from the buggy and run over little child, which fortunately escaped serious injury.

Disastrous Runaway.

About 5 p. m. yesterday Herman Hechtman and Ezra Casmelton were out riding behind a sprint team, the property of Jim Clark. At Fifteenth and P streets one of the horses gave a jump and broke a whiffletree. The team started forward and started to run. Mr. Casmelton jumped out and escaped with a few bruises. Mr. Hechtman was thrown out and suffered a fracture of the left arm and the horses freed themselves from the buggy and ran over little child, which fortunately escaped serious injury.

THE STATE'S HEALTH.

The Report of the Secretary of the State Board for September.

Gerrard G. Tyrell, M. D., Permanent Secretary of the State Board of Health, for the month of September:

Mortality reports received from thirty-four cities and towns, show an estimated population of 702,700, record deaths therein per thousand giving a monthly percentage of 1.25, or an annual death rate of 15 per thousand, which is the same as that in August, and undoubtedly shows how exceedingly low our death rate is compared with that of any other State in the Union. The principal causes of death were:

FERTILE DISEASES.

Reports received from eighty-five localities in different parts of the State all agree upon the extreme healthfulness of their respective districts.

Cholera infantum was observed in several instances in San Bernardino, San Joaquin, Fresno, Sacramento, and Oakland.

Diarrhoea and dysentery is mentioned in reports received from Escondido, San Bernardino, Livermore, San Jose, Downey, Livermore, Tulare, Fort Bidwell, Sierra City, Bakersfield, Gonzales, Marysville, Sacramento, Old Town, Placerville, El Dorado, Truckee, and Alpine.

Typhoid fever is mentioned in reports received from San Francisco. In Stockton one case was imported from San Francisco; another appeared in Livermore, one in San Joaquin and one in Sacramento. All were straining symptoms and so far the disease has not spread. For reasons heretofore given, we may look for a gradual increase of the disease. Prudence should, therefore, suggest that vaccination should be resorted to.

Scarlet fever is reported here and there throughout the State.

It is noted in reports from San Francisco, Jolon, Hollister, San Jose, Visalia, Fresno, Sisson, Downey, Livermore, Tulare, Fort Bidwell, Sierra City, Bakersfield, Gonzales, Marysville, Sacramento, Old Town, Placerville, El Dorado, Truckee, and Alpine.

Typhoid fever is mentioned in reports received from San Francisco, Livermore, Alameda, San Jose, San Francisco, San Joaquin, Fresno, Sisson, Downey, Livermore, Tulare, Fort Bidwell, Sierra City, Bakersfield, Gonzales, Marysville, Sacramento, Old Town, Placerville, El Dorado, Truckee, and Alpine.

POSITIVE ORDERS.

The Exclusion Act Must be Literally Construed.

WASHINGTON, October 11th.—A telegram was received at the Treasury Department to-day from Collector of Customs at Port Townsend, Wash., saying that he had landed a Chinaman at Victoria, B. C., on his way to Port Townsend, and asking the Secretary of War to have him taken ashore. Secretary Maynard telegraphed as follows: "Port of October 1st positively prohibits the landing of Chinese laborers here or departed from the United States territory. The Chinese, per the Acton from Alaska, cannot land."

WASHINGTON, October 11th.—The Secretary of the Navy has issued a circular from General D. S. Phelps & Brothers, San Francisco, saying: "Steamer Duke of Westminster with Chinese crew, bound for China, will be sent to San Francisco to be transferred to a hull for equipment by the next steamer back to China. If the test goes against the Duke of Westminster, she will be returned to the port of San Francisco."

The Department is of the opinion that the transfer of Chinese laborers from iron hulks to steamers is not safe, and that it is harbor is contrary to the Exclusion Act, and that neither the Department nor the collector has authority to make or grant such a transfer.

Porter Ashe Surprised.

(Copyright, 1888, by the California Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, October 11th.—Porter Ashe was greatly surprised to-day to find the President in the Senate, in the course of his speech, in session, passed a resolution calling on the President for all information in his possession relating to the Chinese laborers. Two weeks having elapsed, they want to find out what the President is withholding information about the Chinese laborers. The general belief is that the President has withheld information of importance on this subject, and that it will affect the Pacific slope in the coming election.

WASHINGTON, October 11th.—The Senate, in executive session, has authorized the statement that the Chinese laborers, in their present condition, passed a resolution calling on the President for all information in his possession relating to the Chinese laborers. Two weeks having elapsed, they want to find out what the President is withholding information about the Chinese laborers. The general belief is that the President has withheld information of importance on this subject, and that it will affect the Pacific slope in the coming election.

The Adjournment of Congress.

(Copyright, 1888, by the California Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, October 11th.—General Choi, Chairman of the Chinese delegation, with a number of the leaders of the Senate on the floor, and the House on the floor, is regarded as final. General Clark said to-day that the House would take the responsibility of offering the Chinese a bill, and would probably do so-morrow. He has seen no bill, and the Republican leaders, and they had been informed in expressing a preference for a bill, and the House upon its arrival in Washington, will go to a day on which to adjourn.

Senate Starts on the Way Home.

(Copyright, 1888, by the California Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, October 11th.—A letter was received here-to-day from Senator Stanford, who said for New York from Liverpool yesterday, that he would come to Washington again this fall, unless Congress was in session upon his arrival. As there is every prospect that the Senate will adjourn Saturday, he will go to New York to San Francisco.
